

ST. JOSEPH/ST. PAUL PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING
MARCH 30, 2023
ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

Those present: Tom Burton, Barb Cooksey, Lety DeMattei, Mark Hart, Lisa Hudgens, Cindy Pulsford, Richard Tretter, and Cindy Yong.

Those not in attendance: Steve Bly, Rosie Gribble, Catalina Huerta, Angela Lees, Megan Martin-Leitzen, Lon Richard, Bruce Steh, and Patty Zanotti.

Cindy Yong read from the book of Matthew, and we reflected on Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem and how the prophesies of the scripture are revealed.

The meeting was called to order. Barb moved to approve the minutes from the previous meeting. Lisa Hudgens seconded the motion.

OLD BUSINESS

Barb noted that the Pastoral Council terms for her and Scott Gimmy had expired.

NEW BUSINESS

Barb Cooksey was again elected to serve on the council for St Paul, and Mark Hart was elected to serve on the council for St. Joseph. Mark was welcomed by those present, and was thanked for accepting a position on the Pastoral Council. There was not a quorum present in order to hold the election of Pastoral Council officers. This will be tabled for the next scheduled meeting.

OLMC – Catalina Huerta was not present to share this report.

CPM – Cindy wanted to recognize the KC Ladies auxiliary for hosting the soup and salad prior to the Ecumenical service. She also wanted to thank the Fall Fest Committee for organizing the St. Joseph Feast day that was held after the 10:30am mass on March 19th. Approximately 90 people attended. Kudos, and our sincere appreciation for all who made these events a success. The “Precious Blood” will be reintroduced into the mass on Holy Thursday. Bishop McGovern has asked that all parishes hold a training for this ministry. Approximately 33 individuals attend the training, however, more will be needed as the number of Eucharistic ministers will increase for each service. There may be another training in late April. Mark suggested we offer a sign up sheet for those individuals who might be interested in participating in this ministry. They can be contacted and may feel more committed to follow through with their intent.

Cindy has been working along with Patty Lynn to prepare the liturgy for Holy Week.
